

Supplementary Figure 1

Supplementary Figure 1. Anti-NMDAR encephalitis was detected when a 14-year-old girl was admitted to our hospital with persistent left-sided limb weakness and dizziness. Her brain MRI performed six days after symptom onset showed abnormal signals in basal ganglia, cerebral peduncle, pons, and cerebellopontine junction arm on FLAIR sequence.